FIRST CLASH OF EAST AND WEST

Good Idea of Strength of Major Teams Now Possible

New York, May 9.—Next week will witness the first clash of the season between the teams comprising the eastern and western divisions of the big leagues. The western outfits will invade the East, while the Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Brooklyn teams of the National league will battle with the enemy in the West. When the inter-sectional series is finished it will be possible to form a pretty good line of the real strength of the different teams in the three leagues.

While George Studdings Boston Braves will start the merry war in the West with a single game at Pittsburgh Tuesday, the hostilities will not begin in earnest until the next day, when Brooklyn will play in Chicago, Philadelphia in St. Louis, Boston in Cincinnati and New York in Pittsburgh.

Much interest will center in the first clash of the Giants and the Pirates. For a long time the McGraw clan has been touted as the class of the National league. To uphold this reputation it will be necessary for them to show to good words when they meet the fast Pittsburgh team.

The Brooklyn Robins look good enough to hold the Cubs at bay, and the Phillies appear to be the best bet against the Cardinals. At Cincinnati the Red Birds should be able to fatten up their average at the expense of the Braves.

Tuesday the American league enthusiasts in the East will be given their first peep at the wares of the western bums of the American organization. The world's champions will entertain the Cleveland Naps in Philadelphia. Boston will play host for St. Louis, Washington will welcome Chicago and New York will stage a "tango" in the home of Detroit. And from the way the Tigers have been going the Yankees will have to move pretty lively to catch the new steps.

An added attraction of the visit of the Chicago White Sox to Boston will take place May 23, which has been designated as "Daly day" in honor of Tom Daly, the hard-hitting youngster with the Sox. Daly bails from Cambridge across the river from Boston, and his opening game in the Hub will be his first performance in a big league uniform before the folks at home.

A Delicious Table Drink

Quite remarkable is the increase during the past few years in the use of high grade bottled beer as a table beverage.

The development of the brewer's skill no doubt accounts in a large measure for this. He has produced a light beer that is particularly adapted to household use.

But people have found that a glass or two of beer with a meal is a splendid appetizer, a great digestive agent, and with a most enjoyable adjunct. Many have discovered too, that by substituting it for tea and coffee they are greatly benefited.

Calumet Bottled Beer

is supplied to an ever increasing family trade. This branch of our business has grown remarkably within the last few years, which is sufficient proof of the popularity of this brand. Calumet Beer is absolutely pure, as it is brewed in strict conformity with the pure food laws. It is a delicious table drink. You'll like it. Quarts or pints.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

American League.
Washington, D. C., May 9.—Philadelphia and Washington battled for ten innings yesterday to a tie in a game featured by heavy hitting and erratic fielding. The game was called on account of darkness. The Athletics used three pitchers and the locals four in an attempt to stop the scoring. Philadelphia pounded Johnson hard, getting seven hits off him in three innings. A triple play by Henry and Gandil with the bases full in the ninth prevented Philadelphia from winning.

MORAN OFF FOR SCENE OF BOUT

Jack Johnson Maps Out Campaign of Diligent Training

New York, May 9.—The sailing of Frank Moran for France marks the passing of the preliminary stage in the arrangements for the heavyweight titular bout to be fought in Paris on June 27. Jack Johnson as defender of the championship, has already begun a regular routine of training and Moran will follow suit as soon as he arrives upon the scene of the coming contest. While his plans are but tentatively outlined at present and subject to conditions that Moran will have to consider upon his arrival in Paris, Johnson has settled upon a two months' schedule of conditioning which he declares will fit him for a successful defense of the title won at Reno on July 4, 1910.

Johnson has selected Asnières, a suburb of Paris, as the site of his training camp and begun his conditioning there early this week. Apparently Johnson expects a lengthy bout in which there will be resource to much footwork for he gives as one of the principal reasons for his selection of Asnières as a training camp the fact that the surrounding roads are ideal for running and long walks.

Whatever the outcome of the bout it is evident this early that the French are preparing to greet the principals with the usual French enthusiasm. Those in charge of the arrangements are in receipt of daily requests for seat reservations and several of the more desirable sections of the Velodrome d'Hiver are already sold, although the coupons have not been received from the printers.

25-CENT BASEBALL FAST DISAPPEARING.

Twenty-five-cent baseball seems to be disappearing from the major league parks. Just now it is a case of "if you haven't got four bits you needn't come around."

Until a few years ago, when most of the club owners in the American and National leagues began constructing new stands, there were many 25-cent seats. But since then they have been growing scarcer and scarcer. The old bleacher area in most of the parks has been cut into three parts, the two parts nearest the home plate selling for 50 cents, and only the little stretch that is farthest away from the plate being allotted to the 25-cent fans.

The rules of the big leagues provide for 25-cent seats, but they do not specify the number. Because of that little error that would have protected the 25-cent fans the magnates have reduced the bleacher seats from numbers far into the thousands to numbers in the hundreds.

BRITONS WATCH YANKEES.

Regard Golf Entrants As Strong Players To Be Feared.

London, May 9.—English golfing authorities fully aroused to the possibility of an American entrant winning the English amateur championship tournament, which will be played May 18 and 19, are watching with close attention the final practice rounds of the more dangerous competitors. Travers, Herreshoff and Quimet are objects of careful technical scrutiny upon every course where they have played during the past month and the same now applies to "Chick" Evans who arrived much later than his fellow entrants.

The consensus of expert opinion appears to be that while all four Americans violate one or more of England's sacred golfing traditions, they are players of great ability and to be feared in the approaching tournament at Sandwich. They have been the subjects of scores of interviews and descriptive articles in which the writer described their strong and weak points as he saw them.

REGIMENT ON MOTORCYCLES.

Offer Services to President Wilson For Mexican War.

The Mexican crisis furnished immediate proof that there are no more loyal citizens in the country than motorcyclists.

Among the first to offer their services to Uncle Sam to aid in defending the honor of their country were members of the Federation of American Motorcyclists. "I can furnish one thousand motorcyclists, all mounted on the latest models of motorcycles, within 30 days, for service in case of war with Mexico," wired President Patterson of the F. A. M. to Washington. The plan of President Patterson in organizing this motorcycle-mounted regiment contemplates that the riders should either be formed into a single regiment or divided into small companies to be used as dispatch bearers, scouts and patrollers.

"Nothing would please me more in case of war," says President Patterson, "than to have command of a regiment of men mounted on motorcycles, either for actual fighting or for dispatch and aid work. And there are many seasoned captains in the F. A. M. who are capable of officering a company of riders."

MEADOW BROOK FIELD.

New York, May 9.—The scene of the polo activities preparatory to the international challenge cup matches next month were shifted today from Lakewood, N. J., to Long Island, where all future practice games between candidates for the American team will be held. Tentative plans announced by Harry Payne Whitney, the coach, call for games at the grounds of the Meadow Brook Steeplechase association and the field on the Phipps estate, Westbury. The ponies used by the players were shipped to Roslyn today.

MICHIGAN STARS INJURED.

Fortunate No Big Meet Is Scheduled for Today.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 9.—It is probably a lucky thing for the Michigan track squad that today's meet calls for "Varsity" competition only, and that the Syracuse dual engagement is over a week off.

Griest, the versatile athlete who was converted from a high jumper to a half miler by Trainer Farrell was obliged to give up college, while Catlett and Ufer are temporarily laid up by injuries. Catlett is suffering from a torn tendon, an old injury which his activities in the Cornell meet revived, while Ufer is handicapped by a wrenched ankle.

Michigan's spring football work of a definite nature has concluded, although all the candidates for the 1914 eleven, who number about 70, are keeping up some sort of athletic work. Coach Yost has left for Assistant Coach "Germany" Schulz is on the job and keeps those men who are not engaged in track or baseball busy on the gridiron.

LAUNCHING OF DEFIANCE.

Candidate To Defend American Cup Nearly Ready.

Bath, Me., May 9.—The racing sloop Defiance, a candidate for the defense of the American cup, is to be launched at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from the yards of her builders in this city. Three yachts are scheduled to enter the elimination trials to select the cup defender and the Defiance will be the second to take to the water. The first was launched two weeks ago at Bristol, R. I. The Defiance is being built by a syndicate of prominent yachtsmen of Boston, Philadelphia and New York.

Members of the syndicate from each of the three cities are expected here to witness the launching. The present plan is to have the Defiance ready for her first trial spin by the middle of this month.

SPORTING EDITOR'S NOTES.

Pitcher Rube Benton has been doing excellent twirling for the Cincinnati Reds so far this season.

Charles L. Applegate has been asked to pilot the Newport, K. Y. team, the new member of the Ohio State league.

President Elberts of the Brooklyn club has signed Walsh, a Fordham college player, who will be tried in the Superbas' outfield.

By winning twenty-one consecutive games, the University of Texas inter-college team has set up a fairly record for other college ones to go after.

Ira Thomas, captain of the Athletics, is president of a building and loan association named after the team. Connie Mack and John D. Shibe are among the directors.

Harry Smith, the Newark manager, and Kitty Bransfield, manager of the Montreal team, were members of the Pittsburgh Pirates when the team won the pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903.

Can it be possible that Detroit and Pittsburgh, the old battles of 1909, are in line to meet in another world's championship? Sh! Not so loud. Here comes Connie Mack and John McGraw.

Mike Donovan, pinch hitter of the Giants, says his eyesight is as good as ever, which means that Mike is hanging on to his job for a few seasons before the close of the present season.

The new ball grounds at Haverhill, Mass., have been christened "Tener Park" in honor of John K. Tener, president of the National league. Tener was a member of the Haverhill team in the early '90s.

Now it is Mike Mowrey and his big bat that is the important factor in keeping the Pittsburgh Pirates up there. Mike never played better ball than he is playing today.

Ed Smith no doubt will be able to run the new South Bend team of the Southern Michigan league without outside interference. He is owner, manager, captain and pitcher of the club.

Jess Willard, the heaviest hope in captivity, is doing two a day on the Louisville stage.
